THE TOURNÉE DU CINÉMA QUÉBÉCOIS IS BACK ON THE ROAD FOR A 14th SEASON! Quebec's movies from coast to coast

Montreal, Wednesday, September 27, 2017 – The Tournée du cinéma québécois, in collaboration with Radio-Canada, is pleased to announce a new season on the road, showcasing Quebec's films across Canada in 2017-18. Because most of the country's francophone communities lack regular access to Quebec-made movies on the big screen, the Tournée will continue to enhance the programming of existing festivals and enrich the cultural offerings available to francophone communities by promoting Quebec's films in as many Canadian cities and towns as possible. Several artists will be part of the tour, meeting francophone and francophile movie lovers across Canada.

"Behind each screening and gathering is a crowd of passionate movie fans, francophones and francophiles, young and old, all eager to enjoy stories that speak to them. Québec Cinéma is very proud that for a 14th season, the Tournée will continue the conversation and keep making Quebec films part of the cultural life of francophone communities across Canada," said François Lemieux, director of the Tournée du cinéma québécois.

In addition to screenings for the general public, the Tournée will also present special cinematic experiences for young people through its program of activities in French-language schools.
