On November 8, cinephiles will have the chance to see Canada’s representative for the Oscar for Best Foreign-language Film, Chien de garde by Sophie Dupuis, with actor Jean-Simon Leduc present. Lastly, the November 11 screening will be 1991 by Ricardo Trogi, concluding the Tournée’s visit to Orléans.

THE LAB QUÉBEC CINÉMA JOINS THE TOUR

The Lab Québec Cinéma team will take advantage of the Tournée’s visit to the area to present film-themed educational activities to students in Ottawa and Gatineau. The Lab’s school-based activities help students develop their analytical skills, critical faculties and highlight the educational value of culture through workshops, screenings with commentary as well as master classes.

15 YEARS OF TOURNÉE

Since its inception, the Tournée has travelled more than 170,000 kilometres, bringing Quebec’s films and francophone culture to audiences. On its journeys, the Tournée has screened more than 700 films representing every genre, introduced 450 artists working in several film disciplines to audiences, and reached 107,000 spectators across Canada. And that’s not all! For this 15th season, the Tournée team will bring Quebec's films to audiences in every Canadian province outside Quebec, as well as two territories, for the first time.

ESSENTIAL PARTNERSHIPS

La Tournée Québec Cinéma is presented in collaboration with Radio-Canada and made possible by Bell Média through tangible benefits. Québec Cinéma thanks the governments of Ontario, Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, British Columbia, Nunavut, Newfoundland and Labrador and Manitoba as well as its primary partners: Radio-Canada, MELS, Akufen and VIA Rail. Thanks to our public-sector and government partners: the Secrétariat du Québec aux relations canadiennes (SQRC), the Société de développement des entreprises culturelles (SODEC) and Telefilm Canada.

ABOUT THE TOURNÉE QUÉBEC CINÉMA

The Tournée Québec Cinéma tours Quebec-made movies from coast to coast, making the event the largest Canada-wide promotional vehicle for our films. Because most francophone communities outside Quebec lack access to big-screen showings of films from Quebec, the Tournée's activities enhance established festivals and enrich communities' French-language cultural offerings. Each year, several artists join the tour, making it an exceptional event for francophones and francophiles who love our movies.
